Humanities (CH) Assessment

1 CRITERIA	2 ADVANCED	3 PROFICIENT	4 BASIC	5 UNSATISFACTORY
Students understand the historical place of the humanities in the lives of individuals and societies. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Presents a thorough and accurate account of the historical place of the humanities in lives of individuals and societies. # of Students _____	Presents an accurate account, with no important omissions, of the historical place of the humanities in the lives of individuals and societies. # of Students _____	Presents an incomplete or partially inaccurate account of the historical place of the humanities in the lives of individuals and societies. # of Students _____	Fails to present an account of the historical place of the humanities in the lives of individuals and societies. # of Students _____
Students recognize that through time, the boundaries of the humanities are flexible and changing and demonstrate an ability to engage multiple perspectives. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Identifies and critically interprets significant change, uncertainties, or contradictions and engages multiple perspectives. # of Students _____	Identifies and engages in some interpretation of significant change, uncertainties, or contradictions and engages multiple perspectives. # of Students _____	Demonstrates limited ability to identify significant change, uncertainties, or contradictions and engage multiple perspectives. # of Students _____	Fails to identify significant change, uncertainties, or contradictions and engage multiple perspectives. # of Students _____
Students examine, analyze, and engage materials carefully and critically. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Analyzes and engages materials in a careful, highly critical, and insightful manner. Provides unique synthesis of information. # of Students _____	Analyzes and engages materials carefully and critically. Provides concise synthesis of information. # of Students _____	Makes some errors in analyzing and engaging materials and synthesizes information awkwardly or imprecisely. # of Students _____	Fails to analyze and engage materials or synthesize information. # of Students _____