

2021 Harlow Summer Seminar Series

Thursdays, 5:30 pm BBQ followed by seminar at 6:30, $5-$10 suggested donation
Visit our website (uwnps.org) for more information and to join the mailing list

New Location!

The location for the 2021 series will be the University of Wyoming Extension,
Teton County Building in Downtown Jackson
255 West Deloney, Jackson, WY 83001

Open to the public.

Wearing masks is strongly encouraged except while eating.

Seating limited to 100 people.

- Jun 24 Past, present & future climate change in Greater Yellowstone's watersheds: The 2021 Greater Yellowstone Climate Assessment
Bryan Shuman, Director, UW-NPS Research Station at the AMK Ranch, Grand Teton National Park, and Professor of Geology & Geophysics, University of Wyoming
- Jul 8 Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem grizzly bear recovery and managing mortality
David Finnoff, Professor of Economics, University of Wyoming
- Jul 15 Restoring sagebrush steppe in Jackson Hole during the UN decade on ecosystem restoration
Daniel Laughlin, Professor of Botany, University of Wyoming
Sponsored by the University of Wyoming Biodiversity Institute
- Aug 19 CANCELED: Traditional Ecological Knowledge: Indigenous ways of understanding
Tarissa Spoonhunter, Associate Professor of American Indian Studies, Central Wyoming College,
Sponsored by the Wyoming Microbial Ecology Collaborative/Wyoming EPSCoR
- Sep 2 CANCELED: Learning through national parks: America's largest classroom
Ana Houseal, Associate Professor, Science and Mathematics Teaching Center
School of Teacher Education, University of Wyoming
- Sep 9 CANCELED: When cameras arrived: Photographic aesthetics in the American West
Rachel Sailor, Associate Professor of Art History, Visual & Literary Arts, University of Wyoming

MICROBIAL ECOLOGY
COLLABORATIVE

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING

Biodiversity
Institute