INFORMATION RELEASE FORM

Keeping your personal information secure is very important to us, and we understand that maintaining a good balance is important to our customers as well. In order for us to maintain a good balance of confidentiality and account access, we are requesting that this form be completed if you would like to allow other individuals access to your account. This is necessary if you would like anyone else to add, cancel, or change rides on your behalf. They may also be contacted if we have any questions and are unable to reach you. (Your emergency contact information will remain the same.)

Please allow the following individuals to have access to my account:
